DRIVER FORM

To: Parents & Guardians of journalism students who drive cars to school

From: Steve Gibbs, journalism advisor

Re: Designated driver waiver form effective from date of signature to end of that school year only.

Signing this form gives your child/student permission to drive off campus during school hours for journalism-related tasks either ALONE or while TRANSPORTING OTHER JOURNALISM STUDENTS.

Occasions arise when journalists will need to leave campus to make contact with advertising merchants and interviewees when covering a story.

It is preferred that students not travel alone. I'm suggesting that another student accompany your child as a passenger when errands are run. All passengers will sign a similar Passenger Form that gives them parent permission to be a passenger in another student's car. You have multiple options below.

To grant this request the school must have 1) verification of passenger liability insurance and 2) a signature accepting responsibility for the passenger, and waiving the school and the advisor's liability toward any accidents resulting while your child is in transit.
